

Call for Four Week training on “Advance Techniques in Surveillance and Control of Vector Borne Diseases” for EPIDEMIOLOGISTS / ENTOMOLOGISTS/ BIOLOGISTS/ DMO/CMOs

Description:

Training on “Advance techniques (Molecular Techniques, GIS RS and Advance Entomology) in surveillance and control of vector borne diseases” is being organized from 29th January to 23rd February 2018 at National Institute of Malaria Research (NIMR) Sector -8 Dwarka, New Delhi, supported by Department of Health Research (DHR).

How to Apply

Interested candidates may send filled up application downloaded from website on email nimr.training2017@gmail.com by 29th December 2017 for admission into this training program. The application should be submitted through proper channel with justification from head of the Institute/ Center / State Government etc. Selection of candidates is in purview of Director, NIMR. For Further clarification, Dr. Himmat Singh , Scientist ‘D’ may be contacted on mobile = 08860349351

Eligibility:

The candidates should be Epidemiologist/ Entomologist/ Biologist/ DMO/ CMO/ Public Health Official working in their respective organizations.

Duration:

Four weeks 29th January to 23rd February 2018

Venue: National Institute of Malaria Research, Sector-8, Dwarka, New Delhi -110077.